

Andrew Carnegie Said:

"The man who cannot and does not save money cannot and will not do anything else worth while."

That's true. Saving puts a man together—makes him fit and able to do things. Nine out of every ten successful men owe their success directly or indirectly to the saving habit. What are you doing? Why not make the start today and open a Savings Account here with that spare dollar?

Japs Discharged by Army and Navy Club.

New York, May 21.—Suspicion that perhaps the Japanese were too attentive listeners to conversations today has resulted in the dismissal here of ten Japanese waiters, eight from the Army and Navy Club and two from the United Service Club, an organization of retired army and navy men.

No member of either club could be found who would say that the discharged Japanese were suspected of being spies, the general explanation being that their work was unsatisfactory. It is significant, however, that no other Japanese have been hired to take their places.

A motion picture theatre on wheels has been equipped by a number of railroads to teach fuel economy to engineers and firemen.

The "Just As Good" Kind

AS IT APPEARS TODAY

Two or three years ago Phoenix Mutual policies were sold in Jackson county under the representation that they were "just as good" as old line, for a little less money.

Today, those who bought that kind of insurance are standing the consequences—a 12 per cent assessment on the face of their policies, and the men who lost their homes are still waiting for their money.

Get good insurance and stay with it.
